MONTHLY DIGEST OF STATISTICS

No. 250

OCTOBER 1966

This Digest has been prepared by the Central Statistical Office in collaboration with the Statistics Divisions of Government Departments.

2. The name of the department or organisation providing the statistics is shown under each table. Some of the statistics provided by departments are actually collected by other organisations such as nationalised boards and trade associations. The assistance provided by these organisations, too numerous to mention individually, is gratefully acknowledged.

3. The figures in the Digest are mainly totals for calendar months or monthly averages.

4. Some of the figures included in this Digest are provisional only and may be revised in later issues.

Definitions

5. A Supplement of Definitions and Explanatory Notes, published with the January issue, gives detailed definitions of all the terms and units used in the Digest.

6. The following general definitions should be noted in using the Digest:

Area covered. Except where otherwise stated, all statistics relate to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

Units of measurement.

Ton = long ton of 2,240 lb.

Gallon = imperial gallon.

Consumption and stocks. The terms 'consumption', 'disposals' and 'stocks' are normally defined in detail in the Supplement to the Digest. Figures of consumption and stocks are seasonal and should be used with caution. The stocks figures given may often relate to only part of the total stocks in the country.

External trade. Owing to differences in coverage and timing, figures of imports and exports are not always comparable with those for production, consumption and stocks.

Symbols and conventions used

7. Symbols. The following symbols are used throughout:

.. not available.

— nil or less than half the final digit shown.

* average (or total) of five weeks.

8. Change of basis. A line drawn across a column between two consecutive figures indicates that the figures above and below the line have been compiled on different bases and are not strictly comparable. In each case a footnote explains the difference.

9. Rounding of figures. In tables where figures have been rounded to the nearest final digit, there may be an apparent slight discrepancy between the sum of the constituent items and the total as shown.

(²) This series is subject to a wide margin of error because of the difficulty of separating business from personal expenditure. It is shown separately because quarterly variations have such an important influence on changes in the total of consumers' expenditure and on personal saving.

Figures of total working population, total in civil employment, employers and self-employed and total employees in employment, have been obtained by the method described on pages 207-214 of the May 1966 issue of the Ministry of Labour Gazette.

Source: Ministry of Labour

The figures for June 1964 (a) and the corresponding figures for earlier months are not strictly comparable with those for June 1964 (b) and later months which are on the revised basis of calculation (see pages 110-112 of the March 1966 issue of the Ministry of Labour Gazette).

Figures after June 1965 for industry groups and the totals for the index of production industries and manufacturing industries are provisional and may be revised after the count of National Insurance cards at mid-1966.

Owing to re-classification at June 1964, figures for earlier years are not strictly comparable. See page 59 of the February 1965 issue of the Ministry of Labour Gazette.

(1) Established and unestablished staff, excluding employees of the Northern Ireland government. In arriving at the totals two part-time workers are counted as one whole-time worker.

(2) From April 1965 the figures include Post Office grades previously classified as Industrial, and exclude Forestry Commission as a grant-aided department.

(3) Ministry of Defence and Ministry of Aviation (Ministry of Supply prior to 1960). A proportion of the staff of the Ministry of Aviation are engaged on civil work, but these have not been assessed separately and are included in this column.

(4) From April 1963 staff was transferred from Defence and Supply Departments to Ministry of Public Building and Works.

(1) Stoppages involving fewer than 10 workpeople or lasting less than one day have been omitted except any in which the total number of working days lost exceeded 100.

(2) From 1960 the analysis by industries is based on the revised Standard Industrial Classification, 1958.

(3) Where stoppages extend over more than one month, the workers involved are counted in the month in which they first participated.

(4) The figures of working days lost relate to the total working days lost within each of the periods shown as a result of stoppages in progress in that period, whether the stoppages began in that period or earlier.

⁽¹⁾ Figures for individual months are averages of the four or five weeks ending on the last Tuesday of each month.

⁽²⁾ Including prescribed industrial disease.

⁽³⁾ Monthly figures relate to the third Tuesday of the month up to January 1966. A new method of estimating was introduced in March 1966, from which date figures relate to the first Tuesday of the month. Yearly figures are averages of twelve monthly figures.

⁽⁴⁾ These figures include substantial numbers of persons who have been sick for a long time and who may no longer be in employment.

⁽⁶⁾ Including a diminishing number of widows with pensions of 30s. a week derived from the old Contributory Pensions Acts. About 76,000 such pensions were being paid in June 1965.

⁽⁷⁾ Before 5 August 1957 widow's pension was converted to retirement pension at age 60; since that date widow's pension continues to age 65 or date of retirement if earlier. ⁽⁸⁾ The yearly figures relate to the end of January in the following year up to 1963, and to the end of December from 1964.

⁽⁹⁾ Including the elder or eldest child for whom no allowance is payable but excluding children over the age limit.

* Average of five weeks.

(1) The authorization of a weekly allowance payable to a person registering as unemployed remains in force for a time after the person last registers. The figures given include persons no longer unemployed on the day to which they relate. For explanation of the difference between these figures and those in Table 25, column 4, see the note on page 29 of the Report of the National Assistance Board for the year 1965 (Cmd. 3042).

(2) Some of the allowances provide for the requirements of a household with more than one pensioner.

(3) Before March 1961, the figures for allowances in supplementation of widows' benefit relate only to widows aged under 60, older widows being included with the retirement pensioners. The figure for September 1966 includes 47,000 recipients of widows' benefit, aged over 60.

(4) Since 1 September 1966, the issue of an 'order-to-pay' at the Employment Exchange has been based on a person's overall requirements thus eliminating the need to confirm whether or not unemployment benefit is in payment. It is, therefore, no longer possible to distinguish persons whose allowances supplement unemployment benefit and all persons registering as unemployed are now included with Other allowances.

⁽¹⁾ This index provides a general measure of monthly changes in total industrial production. The unadjusted index allows for variations in the length of calendar months so that it gives the average weekly rate of production in each month. The seasonally adjusted index allows for holidays and regularly recurring seasonal movements.

As some of the figures on which the index is based are available only with considerable delay, the index numbers for the last few months are always liable to be revised. Industries are grouped according to the Standard Industrial Classification, 1958.

Changes in the basis of the recorded figures have occurred from time to time making comparisons difficult. The figures given in this table have therefore been adjusted where necessary to conform throughout to the current definitions given in the Supplement of Definitions and Explanatory Notes.

(1) Excluding the fuel industries which produced:

Coal mines (1965/66)	746
Gas works (1965/66)	185
Mineral oil refining (1965)	563

These industries accounted for an average weekly production of about 29 million kilowatt hours in 1965 as compared with 327 million kilowatt hours produced weekly in 1965 by the industries included in the table.

(2) Including non-ferrous metal manufacture and industries covered by Orders VI-IX of the Standard Industrial Classification, 1948.

*Average of five weeks.

(¹) Wool, hosiery (and other knitted goods), made-up clothing and the spinning, weaving and merchant converting sections of the cotton and man-made fibre industries. (²) The index numbers for individual sectors relate to the total output of manufacturers whose main business is in that sector of the industry and not output of that particular type of garment. (³) These indices have been adjusted to allow for differences in the lengths of calendar months but not for holidays or for other seasonal variations. (⁴) From January 1965 the figures relate to an enlarged panel of contributors.

⁽²⁾ These figures relate to work included in the preceding columns which is to be done without a firm order.

⁽³⁾ Including garages and shops.

⁽⁴⁾ Including gas, electricity, coal-mining, railways and air transport.

(1) The figures relate to schemes mainly over 5,000 sq. ft. The industrial coverage of approvals was changed in 1959/60 and the definition of industrial floor space changed in some regions in 1960 and 1961. The impact of these changes on completions cannot be related to particular years.

(2) For all projects (new buildings, extensions to existing premises and buildings converted to industrial use) for which industrial development certificates were issued.

(3) For manufacturing industry only (new buildings and extensions to existing premises).

(¹) Excluding building which is wholly financed from private sources. (²) From January 1960 for Scotland and from April 1960 for England and Wales the cost of school meals projects has not been separately recorded. The value of such projects, shown separately for the years 1946 to 1959 in previous tables of educational building, has been included as appropriate under the headings 'Primary and secondary' and 'Special schools'. (³) Figures for England and Wales include the value of projects for which specific approval is not required. (⁴) Totals for England and Wales include the value of certain projects for which no analysis between type of project is available. As from October 1961, the individual value of such projects is less than £2,000. (⁵) Figures for England and Wales relate to project values and those for Scotland to contract values. Figures for Scotland include the cost of certain minor projects for which specific approval is not required. (⁶) This figure takes account of the value of Colleges of Advanced Technology projects transferred to the University Grants Committee on 1 April 1965. (⁷) The Scottish figures of projects approved refer to approval at the sketch plan stage, which might be some six to twelve months before the start of construction, except those for the period from January 1954 to December 1959 which refer to tenders accepted for approved projects. (⁸) The Scottish figures of 'Under construction' and 'Completions' are based on the tender costs, but from January 1954 to December 1959 the figures of 'Completions' are adjusted in respect of any difference between the tender and final costs as the latter become known. The 'Under construction' and 'Completions' figures exclude the value of approved school projects which in 1965 amounted to £849,000 and £74,000 respectively.

⁽³⁾ Extensions, alterations, remodelling and war damage repairs.

(1) The railway figures up to December 1962 are derived from statistics compiled by the British Transport Commission and from January 1963 from statistics compiled by the British Railways Board. The annual figures for road transport are estimated from periodic sample enquiries, traffic count data, trends in the goods vehicle population and changes in industrial output. The monthly road transport figures are estimated from traffic count data, adjusted to take account of the under-estimation which results from using this method.

(2) Not over 30 cwt. unladen weight.

The four-weekly averages for each year are computed from calendar year totals. The reduced fares category includes statutory day returns in the London area. From January 29, 1966, Full fares and reduced fares have been combined for London Transport railways. Similarly, the annual figure for 1965 has been combined, with an appropriate revision for 1964.

Season ticket journeys are calculated on the basis of 600 journeys per annum for London Transport, and before 1962 for British Railways. From 1962 the basis used for British Railways is 540 journeys per annum.

⁽²⁾ Up to and including 1962 the figures are based on miles actually hauled and include free-hauled traffic except that hauled by departmental trains. From the beginning of 1963 they are based on miles charged for and exclude all free-hauled traffic.

⁽¹⁾ This is equal to Exchequer borrowing and special transactions (net) less receipts from extra-Exchequer funds, etc. It is also equal to the amount the central government borrows less any increase (or plus any decrease) in its holdings of gold and currency reserves.

⁽²⁾ These figures relate to net purchases of government marketable securities by the Post Office Savings Bank Fund Investment Account and the Trustee savings banks special investment departments, which are regarded as financial intermediaries.

⁽²⁾ The sum of the twelve monthly receipts under certain headings is slightly greater than the total shown for the financial year. This is because the monthly figures include duties ultimately payable to the Isle of Man and adjustments for these are made only at the end of the financial year.

⁽³⁾ Including receipts from the 10 per cent. regulator on most Customs and Excise duties and on purchase tax, operative (i) from 26 July 1961 to 9 April 1962 and (ii) currently, from 21 July 1966.

⁽⁴⁾ Including receipts from capital gains tax from June 1966.

⁽⁵⁾ Including excess profits levy.

⁽⁶⁾ Land tax, mineral rights duties, excess profits duty, corporation profits tax and special contribution.

⁽⁷⁾ Including receipts from the temporary charge on imports from October 1964 less export rebates.

⁽⁸⁾ Provisional.

Source: Ministry of Labour

(²) The enquiry covers about 8,000 firms employing approximately 7 million persons in manufacturing, mining and quarrying, construction, gas, electricity and water supply, some miscellaneous services and some branches of the transport industry (London Transport was included from August 1963). In addition figures for Agriculture are supplied by the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, and the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries for Scotland.

(³) To convert to a weekly basis, earnings of employees paid monthly have been multiplied by 12 and divided by 52.

(⁴) Figures relate to the last pay-week in the month.

(⁵) Figures relate to calendar months.

Note: Fluctuations from month to month in the indices may be due to the payment of large annual or half-yearly bonuses, or to seasonal changes in average hours worked; e.g. variations due to the payment of Christmas and 'end-of-year' bonuses are particularly noticeable in the December figures for employees paid monthly.

Administrative and clerical workers and other salaried persons have been excluded. Certain qualifications are given in a full account of the enquiry relating to October 1964, published in the Ministry of Labour Gazette for February 1965.

(¹) The index of retail prices replaced the Interim index from January 1956. A new set of weights was introduced, based on ascertained consumption in 1953-54, valued at January 1956 prices. Commencing in January 1962, the weights have been revised each January on the basis of ascertained consumption in the three years ended in the previous June, valued at prices obtaining at the date of revision.

(1) The weighting of the monthly index is based on the pattern of trade in 1961. The method of calculating the import and export unit value index was explained in the Board of Trade Journal for 13 September 1963.

(2) The index numbers for years before 1960 which were based on 1952 = 100 have been linked to the new series 1960 = 100 to give an approximate comparison.

(3) Export unit value index as a percentage of the import unit value index.

Based on manufacturers' list prices.

The market-price series are based on prices before the addition of subsidies paid to producers under the Cereals Deficiency Payments Scheme and Fatstock Guarantee Scheme.

The gross-price series for wheat, cattle and pigs are based on prices after the addition of subsidies paid to producers; those for milk and eggs on prices paid to producers by the marketing boards for these commodities; and that for potatoes on producer prices, sometimes 'supported' by the Potato Marketing Board.

Figures to June 1966 have been adjusted to final deficiency payments.

Maincrop potatoes only.

Based on guaranteed minimum prices to producers at packing stations.

Based on net prices to farmers after deduction of subsidy.
